PROJECT DETAILS

The first direct retail venture into Edinburgh for the global brand of Hugo Boss saw them join forces with clothes retailer Cruise to open a state-of-the-art new shop on George Street in Edinburgh.

Won through a competitive tender, Sharkey were tasked with delivering a very high quality interior fit out in a 12 week timescale; critical due to the official opening being pre-booked well in advance.

The work content included sub dividing the internal space to create two distinct trading areas, putting in raised floors, changing rooms and manufacturing a number of bespoke furniture items in the Sharkey's own workshop.
