

SHARKEY
PROCEDURES
HEALTH & SAFETY

Sharkey regards its staff as a key resource and encourage active participation in health and safety.

Sharkey recognises its statutory obligations to control workplace risks and to consult staff on matters affecting their Health and Safety.

Sharkey recognises and accepts its responsibilities for Health and Safety and will, as far as is reasonably practicable:

- Provide safe systems of work, plant and equipment that are without risks to health;
- Maintain safe workplaces;
- Provide information, instruction, supervision & training to ensure that work may be carried out safely and without risks to health;
- Provide the organisation necessary to carry out this policy;
- Provide health surveillance where necessary.
- Appoint competent personnel to secure compliance with statutory duties and to undertake reviews of its policy as necessary.

In order to meet its obligations towards the general public and all lawful visitors to Sharkey premises, Sharkey will pay strict attention to its duties under the Health and Safety at Work Act and the Occupiers' Liability Acts 1957 and 1984.

This policy has been prepared in compliance with section 2(3) of the Health and Safety at Work, etc. Act 1974 and binds directors, managers and employees, in the interests of employees and customers. We request that our customers and visitors respect this policy, a copy of which can be obtained on demand.
